

ANNALES.

AN ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT, being a Large and Learned HISTORY of CHURCH and STATE AFFAIRS, relating especially to ENGLAND, for Eight hundred Years, ending in 1626. and consisting of about Eight Reams of Paper, fairly Written, and Compiled by THOMAS HARDING, B. D. late of the University of Oxford.

These ANNALS have formerly been recommended by a Committee of the Honourable House of Commons to be Published in Print, as appears by the said Committee's Order writ thereon, and Licensed accordingly. But have lain dormant by being in Womens Custody and Property till now. Out of which may be extracted Large Histories or Chronicles either of Church or State Affairs, ready for the Press.

If any Person be willing to purchase this History, they may see it at the Dwelling-house of Euclid Speidell, in Angel-Alley near White-chappel Church, London; any Afternoon at Three of the Clock, and know the Price thereof.

Sept. 1695

